By Appointment.

Clifford's Inn Hall. One of the "Inns of Chancery," which can be approached by Fetter Lane (anciently Fulitours or Beggars' Lane) or from Fleet Street. Out of the rush and bustle of that busy thoroughfare, a passage leads up beside St. Dunstan's. The Inn is named after Robert de Clifford, whose widow leased it to the men of law, in 1344, at a rental of £10. On the north side of a small courtyard stands a Hall with a clock, and windows filled with heraldic glass. But the chief charm is in the green grass, the shady trees, the peace and quietude.

"INNS OF COURT AND CHANCERY."
